along the same line, evidently the work of a man who has apparently lost his bearings. The postmaster forwarded a communication received yesterday to the department headquarters and will await the decision of the officials as to what disposition to make of the numerous complaints being registered by the rather regular patron of the rural free delivery service.

NEXT ISSUE OF MAGAZINE WILL BE GIVEN MESA

John Arden Reeves, the publisher of Arizona, the new state magazine, was in Mesa yesterday completing arrangements whereby the next issue of the publication will be devoted to Mesa and surrounding country. It is understood that the chamber of commerce has contracted for at least five hundred copies of the next issue which will be used in disseminating the gospel of the Salt River valley in general and Mesa in particular as long as they last. There are few things which are to advantage in selecting the next issue of the magazine for the Mesa feature. It has been determined that the very best advertising time of the year, or rather the very best time to send out advertising from this point is during the summer months. It is a well known fact that the average eastern or northern farmer upon reading of this country or any other country which favorably impresses him is not able to pull up his stakes on a moment's notice but that he must first proceed to dispose of his holdings and in most instances prefers to make a personal trip of inspection to this place before investing. With advertising properly gauged as to time, and allowing six months for a prospective purchaser to arrive here it would make the time of his coming something during the winter months when he would be in line for the planting of the spring crops. Another reason for the value of summer advertising is that at no other time of the year is literature of a descriptive nature more widely perused.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by all dealers.

APPEARANCES DECEITFUL.

She had all the earmarks of a green stenographer, and it therefore occurred to the fresh young clerk that here was one whom he could guy to his heart's content. After the luncheon hour, when all the men were in the office, seemed the best time to show what a wag he was.

Tipping them that he was going to have some fun, he went up to her and said: "Oh, Miss T., I heard the funniest story today," and he proceeded to get off a time-honored patriarch of a joke. When he had finished she looked at him guilelessly and said:

"Oh, Mr. X., if you ever hear the mate to that will you tell me?"

"The mate?" said he, rather bewildered.

"Well, you know," said she, "Noah took a pair of all things into the ark with him, and now that I know one of the jokes, really I would love to know the other."—Lippincott's.
